Plan of the Ladies' Union Benevolent Society to relieve the Poor of Washington.

THE FOLLOWING PLAN, adopted at a meeting held November 10, 1857, is reprodushed, with the names of the treasurer, collectors, and distributors appointed in pursuance of its provisions. The plan proposes—

1. That each of the seven wards of the city be divided into four districts, and that for each of these districts at least one gentleman be appointed to collect means for the relief of the poor, and one lady to order their distribution. The agency of these persons to be confined to their own particular districts.

2. That the funds contributed to this object be all paid by the collectors into the hands of a person appointed to act as treasurer of the Ladies' Benevoleut Society, upon whom shall devolve the duty of examining and paying all biffs against the Society, and who shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for his services.

3. That the collectors take from the treasurer receipts for all the moneys they may put into his hands, which receipts they shall give to the auditing committee who may be oppointed by this Society to examine the freasurer's account.

the animing commerce account.

4. That the distributors in each ward be directed to draw their orders, we far as possible, upon the same person or persons, that the number of accounts being limited the duties of the treasurer may be orders, so far as possible, upon the same person or persons, that the number of accounts being limited the duties of the treasurer may be the more easily performed.

5. That applications for assistance be made only to the distributor within whose district the applicant resistor; and that distributors be directed to visit applicants, as far as possible, at their homes, that they may learn with certainty the nature and extent of their wants.

6. That it shall be an especial duty of the collectors and distributors in each district to aid in obtaining employment for the destitute who are in need of it.

7. That all persons having claims against the sectory present them to the treasurer for payment on the first day of each mouth, sending with their bills the orders they have received from distributors; and that, as soon as practicable thereafter, the treasurer report to a joint meeting of the collectors and distributors the extent of his disbursements and the state of the treasury.

8. That a gentleman be appointed to act as treasurer of the society for one year, beginning with December, 1867.

9. That three gentlemans he appointed an auditing committee to examine the treasurer's accounts at the beginning of every mouth, and report the result of such examination to the joint meeting of collectors and distributors.

10. That the collectors and distributors in each ward pursue such a plan as, upon consultation, they may deem most expecilent for the collection and distribution of cast-off-ciothing, bedding, &e., in that particular ward.

11. That cliniens generally, and especially the policemen of the articular ward.

11. That chizens generally, and especially the policemen of the city, he requested to co-operate with this society, by reporting to the distributors cases of suffering and destitution which may come to their knowledge. their knowledge.

12. That this plan, with the names, districts, and residences of the collectors and distributors, be published in the Intelligencer, Union, Star, and States, of this city, and that as many copies of it be printed for general circulation as the president and treasurer of the society may deem expedient.
